

“The Key for Solving Balkan Conflicts is in Romania”.
Excerpts from Albert Südekum’s Correspondence with the Romanian Socialists, 1914-1915
(Abstract)

Flavius SOLOMON

Keywords: World War I; German Propaganda in Neutral Countries; German and Romanian Social Democracy; Albert Südekum; Constantin Dobrogeanu-Gherea.

The letters published in this volume, currently held at the State Archive of the Federal Republic of Germany in Koblenz, represent a fragment of Albert Südekum’s written correspondence with the leaders of the Romanian Social-Democratic Party during the early stages of World War I. These documents reveal certain pieces of information that are especially important for examining the history of the European left-wing movement, the German propaganda in neutral countries, as well as the relations between the German Social Democratic leaders and their Romanian counterparts.